

Planning Process

- ★ A high-quality, well-developed plan, created with your help, is the key to implementing drainage and flood control solutions in your watershed.
- ★ The process starts with citizens and partner agencies identifying a problem and ends with implementing non-structural flood control solutions or constructing drainage facilities.

